

glorious now. There is one thing you have to prepared for.
You are very popular here and already eight people, all very important wives of important officials (literally that) have called me to asked they be permitted to issue cards for a welcoming party in your honour. I think you'll have to play a Mary Evans part and plead ill health. Then there is another menace.