

Catholic University of America
Washington, D. C.

Office of the Rector

March 28, 1917.

Your Excellency:

In view of the present emergency, the Catholic University of America has the honor to offer itself to you for such services as the Government of the United States may desire from it.

With sentiments of profound respect,
I have the honor to remain,

Very faithfully yours,

+ Thomas J. Shahan
Rector.

President of the United States,
The White House,
Washington, D. C.
